Mrs. John W. Rowell, wife of Chief Judge John W. Rowell, who is passing the winter in Montpeller, is suffering an attack of pneumonia.

The novel spectacle of an ox hitched to a sleigh is seen on the streets of Westminster occasionally. Mr. Farn-ham of the south district is the driver.

John Babcock of Stratton who is over 90 years old, is keeping house alone this winter and he is very active. He has recently bought a new steel range with which he is greatly pleased.

C. H. Willard and Wright Plympton while out riding in Townsend, recently saw an animal about the size of a dog of a mixed grayish color, bob tailed, with a rather prominent head. The an-imal was evidently crossing from one range of hills to the other when seen.

L. H. Barrett of Brattleboro has made a good record for one year with twelve hens. He bought them for $6, paid $2.29 for bones and shells for twelve months, but otherwise fed them only with remnants of food from the table, and the eggs laid, at market rates, represented a value of $37.

At the coming session of the United States courts, to be held in Burlington, the famous bankruptey case of Knott & Closson, former stock brokers doing business on St. Paul street, will be again brought to public notice. NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how polynant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming giory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doemed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the year gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the liven of thousand of young women, but thanks to the in vestigations of scientists the true caure of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair foilliers. Newbro's Herpicidabsolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading drugists. CURRENT COMMENT.

What the Press of the State and Country Is Talking About.

Everybody Detests the "Spotter."

The Bethel spotter who secured a man's conviction by gaining his confi-dence and inducing him to purchase liquor is giving our neighboring town a great deal of undesired notoriety.--Ludlow Tribune.

A Valuable Counsel.

It is announced that Hon, H. H. Powers will be retained as general coun-sel for the Rutland railroad. This is the part of wisdom, as his acknowledged ability, long and successful career as a member of the bar of Vermont, judge of the supreme court, and member of Congress from this district, make him a very valuable man to the road,-Middlebury Register.

A Gallant Deed.

The captain is an old soldier and a well known character about town. He is fond of telling stories, and I met him, together with a number of friends,

"I was on picket duty that night," I heard him say, "when I spied nine rebels making their way toward our lines, They were all armed, but I captured them and marched them all into camp."

There was a pause for a moment, and then someone asked: "How did you capture nine armed men, captain?"
The captain was silent for a little while, and then he said, with a look of disgust on his face: "Well, I-er -I surrounded 'em, of course."-Albany

The Injured Mr. Platt.

"In whose interest, then, is all this newspaper discussion about Mr. Platt?" Burlington News.

Burlington News.

"Well, so far us The Messenger has participated in it, the sole purpose was to focus the light of newspaper publicity upon a piece of political work that is unworthy of Vermont Republicanism, to show up the injury done to the state and its institutions by the attempt of the senate to sandbag the governor, and to express regret that such a competent public official as Mr. Platt was ever ed, but no definite action was taken, public official as Mr. Platt was ever meeting appeared to favor the accept ance of Mr. Carnegic's proposition if and wirepulling so very effectively engineered by that same genial little man from Poultney. The senate was more "drawn in" that Mr. Platt. The first part of The Messenger's comment constitutes good, hard fact, however. It was rather small politics.-Ludlow Tri-

French Smokers.

In France there are 6,000,000 smok ers, and of every fifteen there are eight who smoke a pipe, five who smoke cigars and only two who use cigarettes. Still, the French consume more than 800,000,000 eighrettes a year, or enough to go around the world 500 times if they were placed end to end in a line.

A Good Selling Poultry Food.

The best evidence a merchant can of fer to prove to his customers that he is selling an article of real merit is the fact that he has used the article himself with good results. Dunne W. Small of Windsor, Vt., offers this evidence to his Poultry Food trade. Here is his letter: "I have sold and used 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' for the past two years and find it a good seller and profitable food,"
